National Capital Excursions

National Capital Excursions

With over 30 years experience Kangaroo Bus Lines delivers memorable, cost effective and hassle free touring packages for schools throughout SE Queensland and beyond. Explore various destinations including Canberra, Sydney, Dubbo, Blue Mountains and even the NSW Snowfields.

Our knowledgeable tour consultants can customise a fun and educational itinerary to suit your school curriculum criteria and budget. We can cater for groups ranging from 20 students all the way to 200. Packages include quality accommodation, venue bookings, full catering and most importantly safe, comfortable, reliable transportation.

Our courteous and professional drivers will take care of everything so all you have to do is supervise! Drivers will accompany groups to each venue to oversee the tour and ensure students are able to obtain maximum benefit and everything runs smoothly.

The safety of our passengers is paramount to our company policy and therefore we add the reassurance of two experienced drivers per coach unless otherwise negotiated with the school. Not only is the helpful to your school but it also provides parents further peace of mind and reaffirms our commitment to provide safe, quality assured and personalised service to our passengers.

We can also organise groups flights to and from your destination. Just ask us for a seamless travel itinerary with your preferred method of travel.

PACER

An incentive for school's visiting our Nation's Capital is the Parliamentary and Civics Education Rebate, a subsidy for schools travelling more than 150km to Canberra. Subsidies vary according to the distance travelled and the eligibility criteria apply and must be claimed directly by the school.

Note: Approval prior to travel must be obtained in order to receive the PACER.
